

NEW HORIZONS' TEN LAWS OF SUCCESSFUL PARENTING

- 1 Make your child domestically secure, protect from all concerns that threaten or cause worry.
- 2 Never use your children to provide for your emotional needs or for support against your mate.
- 3 Provide for your child's intimacy needs by sharing secrets and being confidential and companionable.
- 4 Build strong character in your child through daily work and responsibility training, compensated and annually increased.
- 5 Give your child confidence and self worth through sincere, frequent praise and hugs.
- 6 Discipline gently, consistently, and sparingly, always with commendations for their good qualities.
- 7 Provide pleasant daily moral and spiritual nurture at the table, and become part of a good conservative church with a strong youth ministry.
- 8 Make it a pattern to love and build each other up in front of your children.
- 9 Have a weekly family unity meeting to discuss what each member wants and needs most from the others, then decide important issues.
- 10 Plan weekly family fun times to build togetherness, influence, and treasured memories.
